“ Robin was very dear to our family. She always made a priority of our family's needs even as her health declined. We will miss her and wish the family knows how much she meant to us. We considered Robin part of our family.

“ My deepest condolences to Rodney & Family.

Although I did not know Robin that well, she and Rodney welcomed me into their home during the Christmas holidays. I could tell from talking with her that she had a fighting spirit, cared very deeply for her family and friends, and was concerned about how her illness was affecting those around her. In spite of her illness, she had a zest for life and at times could be quite ornery.

RIP Robin ....
