

Robin Mary Donaldson

April 25, 1939 - May 1, 2014

Robin Mary Donaldson (née: Thomas) aged 75 of Centreville, MD, passed away May 1, 2014, following a major stroke. Robin was a 30 year resident of Centreville where she had been retired for the past 20 years. She was the daughter of the late Frank and Edna Thomas of Sydney, Australia.

During her long and varied career she had worked in Australia, Britain, and Canada before settling in the United States. She was an IBM trained computer analyst and database manager who worked in Washington, DC, for the Brookings Institute and the International Food Policy Research Institute.

Robin is survived by her husband of 52 years, Graham; a son, Fergus and his wife Kristen and their two boys Grayden and Teddy of Silver Spring, MD; a daughter, Peta Bailey and her husband Chris and their two boys Ewan and Duncan of Toronto, Canada; a brother, Michael and his wife Grace and their two sons; and a daughter of Cairns, Australia.

Cremation arrangements are in the hands of Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. A memorial service will be held at St. Paul's Parish Hall in Centreville, MD, at 3:00 p.m., on Thursday, May 8, 2014. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Salvation Army are welcomed.
