

Rodney Bosbyshell

July 6, 1927 - December 3, 2008

Rodney Bosbyshell of Easton, MD, formerly of St. Augustine, FL, died on Wednesday, December 3, 2008 at William Hill Manor, Easton. He was 81.

Born July 6, 1927 in Philadelphia, PA, he was the son of the late Howell and Gladys Hughes Bosbyshell. After graduation from Lansdsowne High School, he attended Friends Central Academy and LaSalle College. In 1945 he joined the U.S. Navy where he served until 1946, when he was released from active duty with the rank of yeoman. He then began a career in the restaurant business, owning the Boxwood Restaurant in Ocean City, New Jersey for more than 30 years. Following his retirement he and the love of his life, the former Ruth Ann Bland, whom he married in September of 1950, moved to St. Augustine, FL until May of 2008 when they moved to Easton, MD.

Mr. Bosbyshell was a former member of Trinity Episcopal Parish in St. Augustine, FL. He spent many years as a basketball referee and as a tennis umpire. Rod also taught and enjoyed playing duplicate bridge.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Bosbyshell is survived by his son, Howell Bosbyshell and his wife Shalini of Joanna, PA; two daughters, Susan Holloway and her husband Steven of Oxford, MD, and Linda Bush and her husband Peter of St. Augustine, FL; two grandchildren, Linda McCall and her husband Josh, and Steven Holloway, Jr.; and one great-grandchild, Avery

Grace McCall. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by a sister, Dorothy Wertley and a brother, Howell Bosbyshell, Jr.

Memorial services will be held on Monday, December 8, 2008 at 11:00 AM at Christ Church, Easton, MD.

Burial will be private at a later date.

Memorial donations may be made to the William Hill Community Enrichment Fund or the William Hill Employee Appreciation Fund, 501 Dutchman's Lane, Easton, MD 21601.
