“ It is coming to the point where this page will disappear, and I could not let that happen without letting you know that you are still on my mind every day of my life. I miss you so so much and would still give anything I had to see you just one more time. When you page has gone away, you will still be here in my heart. I love you Daddy and I miss you so much. Life has been so strange without you. I hope the fish are still biting and the waters are still calm. Until we meet again.

“ So this morning, you are on my mind. I was thinking that if you were coming to visit me you would be pulling in my driveway about now. There would be hugs, coffee and some kind of breakfast shared. I so wish I could look out my window and see you in your truck right now! I miss you very much. I love you. Crystal

“ I'd much rather be talking to you or sending you a text, rather than writing on your tribute wall!! Tribute wall??? Is this for real?? Is this a dream....more like a nightmare!! I'm going to miss your gruff voice, your soft lips, your smart ass comments, & your pearly whites. For those of you that have ever seen him in shorts, you know that I'm talking about his legs!! I still can't believe this is real. As I finish here, I want to tell you I love you, good night, & lights out. Thanks to you, I can see to go to sleep.

Until we meet again...

*Love,
Mandy*

“ Rod first of all thanks for loving my sister and being her best friend. Second, I promised you that you didn't have to worry about her cause I had her..please know I still do. I want to thank you for being such a loud and big presence in our lives. There will never be another...thanks for being my brother and loving me as much as I loved you. Save a space in the boat for the rest of us...or at least the ones of us that don't get seasick. May the crabs come to you and the fish take your bait!

“ Papa Bear,
Where do I begin? So much left to do and say..so many things you didn't get the chance to show me how to operate. I meant what I told you with all my heart. I will make you PROUD. If only I have an ounce of you in me..which I'm pretty sure I do thank goodness. You will always be my guiding light just like you always have been. I love you so much.

“ *What can I say, Rod? You are gone, but will NEVER be forgotten!
You always treated me like family & I loved you like a brother.
Thank you for your friendship all these years. Thank you for so many things. Most of all for all you & Lois have done for my daughter through the years. It has not gone without notice. Thank you for loving her unconditionally & always being there for her. She loves you tremendously! Your leaving has made an empty place in our world, but our hearts will always hold you dear! Though there are tears in our eyes now....we will think of you fondly in the days to come and remember you with a smile! Our lose is heaven's gain....farewell old friend until we meet again! God bless you!*

“ There are no words that can be said to make the pain go away. I have no answer for the why! I only know that Uncle Rod was loved much and will be missed greatly. There is a huge hole that can not be filled by any other! Thanks for ALWAYS being there for me and my family!!!! There are so many memories and not enough space to share them all!!! I wish you were still here making more with us but I know that we will be together again someday on the other side. We love you very much. The Coopers (aka Steve, NN (Crystal), Sam & Boo Baby (Emi)). “ Dear Dad, I guess you already no its me. I know I wasn't always around as much as you would've liked, the visits were less and less, but that is what happens I guess when you have a family. This I know you understand because when you married mom you had an instant family. So many times the question came up "Why is your name different than your Dads?" , "Is that your step dad?". No, That is my Dad. I guess thats why the visits become less and less you did your job so very well. There was alwaysw the occasional question on how to do something car, truck, lawnmower, first aid. I did have three kids. Or lets go fishing, hunting, or crabbing. Oh how I loved those questions! that answer was always YES! I hope I am the father, uncle, brother, and grandfather that you were. I hope I am and will be. I love you so very much. You will still get my questions in the form of prayers and I will Be waiting for your answers. I will see you again so until then I LOVE YOU.

“ Dear Daddy,

As hard as it was to watch you those last few days, I wouldn't have had it any other way. I will cherish every chance we had to talk over those 5 days. However, I am going to miss your voice, your blue eyes, and well just everything about you. I cannot imagine the love that met you at the gates of Heaven, and someday when my time is over I know I will see you once again. I love you Daddy and I am going to miss you something awful. No more pain and sickness, just peace. I hope the tides are good to you up there Daddy. You will have to tell me all about it when I see you. I love you Daddy, and miss you so much already. It was an honor to have a man such as you for my father! Rest easy Daddy, we will keep our promises here.
Love,
Missy

“ Lois and Family,

Just wanted you to know how sorry we are for your loss but I am so glad Rodney is not suffering any longer. Wayne and I are both here for all of you, we are only a phone call away anytime. I feel Rodney knew I was there on Tuesday and will treasure those last few minutes I spent with him for a lifetime. He had a hard shell but a soft, sweet heart that we will all remember forever.
