

Ronald Sewell Cummings Jr.

September 7, 2023

Ronald Sewell Cummings, Jr., died on September 7, 2023, at the University of Maryland Shore Medical Center in Easton, MD.

A resident of Maryland's Eastern Shore most of his life, Ron was born to Ronald S. Cummings, Sr., and Priscilla Lyons, and grew up on Tilghman Island. He attended Tilghman Elementary, St. Michaels Middle, and St. Michaels High School. He graduated from the University of Maryland Eastern Shore firefighter program. He also lived in North Carolina for a number of years.

He was active years ago in the Tilghman Volunteer Fire Company, Federalsburg Volunteer Fire Company, and Grifton Volunteer Fire Company in Grifton, NC.

Ron, nicknamed "Shorty," worked on the water, crabbing and fishing for Jerry Janda and Randy Haddaway, and loved eating steamed crabs and crabcakes. He enjoyed listening to both country and rock and roll music and watching most sports, especially NASCAR. He was a diehard fan of the Baltimore Ravens.

Ron was always curious. He would take apart gifts to see how they worked but wouldn't be able to put them back together, especially the Kawasaki motorcycle he got for Christmas one year.

He is survived by his sister, Denise Cummings of Ayden, NC; aunt, Darlene Sapp; cousin Christina Sapp of McDaniel, MD; half brother, P.G.Marvil of Georgetown, DE; children, Adam, Ty, and Ronald III; grandchildren, Faith, Hayden, and Adam Cummings, Jr., of Greenville, NC; great-grandchildren, Ryan and Raelyn Cummings of Smithfield, NC; niece, Ashley Moran of Greenville, NC; nephew, Nicholas Moran of Johnson City, TN; and special friend, Hattie Young. He was preceded in death by his parents; his grandparents, Lehman and Melvetta Cummings and Spencer and Gladys Lyons; and his godson, Matthew Sapp.

“ First met this fella as I had overnight visits with Denise. Ronnie liked the dances they used to have for teens at the Tilghman firehouse. Rest easy!
