“ Ron was a very special person who loved life and being at home, watching wildlife n loving his wife n animals. He had a wonderful personality n a lot of spunk and kept it up until the very end. I know he found his sweet Popeye waiting at the bridge for him. He and his wife, Kathy had so much love for each other that it gives hope to all that true love exists. We will miss him so much but at least he's at peace. I hope that his family finds comfort in the many memories they've had together. This is not Goodbye but see you later.
