“ Ronnie you will be missed so much by everyone who walked into your life, I can not put into words the sorrow my heart feels. You have touched so many people and given so much of yourself to others, I will remember you as that man who loved to go on little trips, the day you surprised me with Clea and said it was for your mother (right). I know you missed your mom and now you can be with her everyday she was waiting on you. We will meet again one day my friend, Keep safe and watch over us here.
