“ Miss Rosie was a wonderful friend. I loved to visit her and hear her stories about life on the farm when she was a child. I remember one year, she invited me down to make Christmas greens baskets with her. As we cut and arranged the greens from her yard, she told me a story about how she and her brother would make fresh Christmas wreaths and sell them to earn money to buy gifts for her family. She had so much love for everybody, and she will be greatly missed.
