

Roxanna Hood Kvasnak

May 13, 2002

Roxie, beloved wife and mother, passed peacefully at Talbot Hospice House on May 13, 2002 after a valiant battle with cancer, at the age of fifty.

Born and raised in California, and subsequently Vermont, Roxie met her husband, Andy, in high school and they were married during their college years at University of Vermont. After a short teaching career in Cornwall, VT, Roxie turned her attention to raising her children and owning and operating Skihaus in the heart of Middlebury, VT. They raised three children while continuing to operate their business and develop a large network of friends, all of whom were saddened by their move to the Eastern Shore. In Maryland, Roxie owned Shaw Bay Classics in St. Michaels. In addition, she was active in Junior Women's Club, Soroptimists' and Gourmet.

Roxie was known to her family as a devoted daughter, sister, wife and mother; many of her friends considered her family. An excellent homemaker and business woman, Roxie will be forever remembered for her sense of humor and adventure, as well as her love for travel, especially in warm climates.

She will be dearly missed by, her loving husband, Andy; her children, Leandra, Chase and Lindsay; her mother, Marguerite Butler Rood of St. Michaels; her sister, Pamela Rood of San Diego, CA; and her "almost daughter", Julie Power Ruppert and husband John of Sharon, Mass. In addition, she will be missed by, her in-laws, Alice and Neil Kvasnak, many aunts, uncles, cousins and her adoring pets, Bear, Abby and Socks, along with countless friends and business associates.

Memorial services will be held at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in St. Michaels, MD on Thursday, May 16, 2002 at 11:00 AM.

Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, please make memorial donations to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Dr., Easton, MD 21601 or the Kvasnak Children's Educational Fund, c/o St. Michaels Bank, PO Box 70, St. Michaels, MD 21663.

Arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton.
