

Roy Francis Scarbro

August 23, 1951 - December 18, 2018

Roy F. Scarbro, 67, of Millington, MD, passed away on Tuesday, December 18, at his home.

Born in Oak Hill, WV, Roy was preceded in death by his parents, Roy Preston Scarbro and Evelyn Elsie Stover.

Roy was a loving husband, father, and friend. He was known for his loyalty, honesty, and hard work. He was a military veteran who served in the U.S. Army from 1971 to 1977. He enjoyed working with his hands and spent his entire work life in construction. He was the owner of Scarbro Builders and was a favorite in the community. In his spare time, he could be found with a beer in one hand and a hammer in the other. Roy was a member of Bond Chapel Church and loved spending time in his workshop working on a multitude of projects, gifts, and “honey do lists” for his wife, family, and friends.

He is survived by his loving wife, Margaret “Peggy” Scarbro of 25 years; son, Christopher A. Scarbro and wife Amy; daughter, Angela Scarbro Welch and husband Eric; daughter, Chris Adwell Musser; daughter-in-law, Lisa Temple Adwell; grandchildren, Kristen, Anthony, Nicole, Jake, Kieran, Allannah, Ethan, Alexcia, Ashlyn, Aiden, and Anderson; brother, Mark Scarbro and wife Peggy; sister, Tammy Sylvester and husband John; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his son, Joe "Bo" Adwell, and grandson, Joey.

A celebration of life will be held on Sunday, December 30, at 2:00 pm, at Fellows Funeral Home in Millington, MD.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to a charity of your choice.

“ Dear Peggy & Family,

So sorry for your loss. Roy was a great man, husband, father and builder. Roy would do anything for anybody. If you needed a shirt, he would give you the shirt off his back. Heaven has gained a great man.
