“ I had the privilage to care for Mr. Brooks in his home these last few weeks up until the time of his death. he was a sweet compassionate man. My sympathy goes out to his family and his companion "Lady" his gracious dog for I will miss her greeting me when I arrived at his home.##imported-begin##Libby Pinder##imported-end##

“ Just to let you know we are thinking of you. Growing up in Trappe every weekend
it was get togethers with the Brooks, Groves and Metz with picnics and lots of food ,the main course fried chicken. Mr. Brooks was always smiling and what a personality. He and Dad were such different people but always supported of each other. Dad said he lost his best friend and Mother said she lost her best friend Ann years ago.
