

Rudolph Huber

July 21, 2001

A Memorial Mass for Rudolph Huber, of Cordova, will be celebrated at St. Christopher's Catholic Church, Chester, on Wednesday, July 25, 2001 at 10:30 A. M.

Mr. Huber died at the Talbot Hospice House, Easton, on Saturday, July 21, 2001. He was 91.

Born in Austria, February 25, 1910, he was the son of the late Hilar and Mary Boesch Huber. He was raised in Hudson County, N.J. and remained there following his marriage in 1933 to the former Ita Bizzarri. They made their home in Hudson County until 1941 when they moved to New Milford then to Teaneck, N.J. In 1975, after he retired as a self-employed Schiffli embroidery puncher, they moved to Forked River, N. J. where they resided until moving to Cordova, Md in 1988.

A member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Cordova and the AARP, he was a former member of the Schiffli Embroidery Association, the Schiffli Punchers Alliance, the Forked River Old Guard, the Forked River Senior Citizens Association and the White Beeches Golf Club.

He was an avid golfer, who shot most of the time in the 80's, and was very proud of scoring two holes-in-one during his life.

Mrs. Ita Huber, his loving wife of 59 years, died on December 7, 1992.

His loving memories will remain in the hearts of his surviving family which includes a son, Randolph A. Huber and his wife, Geraldine, of Cordova; a daughter, Marlene C. Huber of Madiera Beach, Fl; a sister, Mary Fiessler of Blairstown, N.J. and a granddaughter, Christina Noel Huber of Cordova, who was always the apple of his eye. He was pre-deceased by three brothers, John Huber, Fred Huber and Ernest Huber.

In lieu of flowers, memorial masses and prayers may be offered in Rudy's memory at the church of your choice.

Funeral arrangements are by the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. Easton. (See www.fhnfuneralhome.com)
