

Ruth E.R. Helfrich

March 10, 2001

Ruth E.R. Helfrich, of Easton, MD, died on Saturday, March 10, 2001, at William Hill Manor. She was 92.

Born June 6, 1908, in Talbot County, she was the daughter of the late William and Annie Covey Helfrich. She attended public schools in Talbot County and graduated from Trappe High School in 1926. She was the last surviving member of the class.

She had worked on the family farm in Windy Hill and, at the death of her parents, assumed ownership and continued the day-to-day operation. A lifelong member of Trappe United Methodist Church, she was also a member of Martha Circle and greatly encouraged and supported many church projects. Miss Helfrich has no immediate survivors.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, March 15, 2001, at 2 PM at Trappe United Methodist Church where friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Private burial will be at Spring Hill Cemetery in Easton.
