“ Miss Ruth was truly one of the finest women I've ever known - kind, loving, dignified and a woman of deep faith... a true lady through and through... I feel lucky to have spent so many years in her home and with her family... I know I should be sad and I am - for Jenny, Albert, her beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren; but she's gone on to a glorious place to be with her mother and father, Miss Helen and all her sisters and brothers, and of course, Martha and Joe (and Henry!)... Her labors are behind her and she is celebrating her homecoming! God bless you, Miss Ruth... I love you.

My condolences to Jennifer and Albert. Miss Ruth lived next door to my grandmother Miriam for as far back as I can remember. Growing up I would spend as much time at her house with Joe as I would at my grandparents. Even after my grandmother passed I would always go see her when I was in Rock Hall. She was a wonderful lady.
