

Ruth R. Tyson

May 14, 2005

Ruth Roberta Tyson, 81, of Charlotte, NC, and previously of Annapolis, died May 14 at Carolina Medical Center in Charlotte.

Mrs. Tyson was born to Herbert and Martha Tenney in Redford, Michigan. She served as a WAVE in the Navy during World War II, and married Donald Tyson in 1945.

They started their family in East Point, GA, before moving to Annapolis where they lived for 41 years. The happiest years of her life were spent raising their four children and helping to raise five grandchildren, her family said. She moved to Charlotte in 1994 where she volunteered for the American Red Cross and Meals on Wheels.

In addition to her grandchildren and former husband of Annapolis, surviving are her children, Donald Tyson Jr. of Charlotte, with whom she resided, Susan McCarty of Stewartstown, PA, James D. Tyson of Charlotte and Jeffrey H. Tyson of Edgewater; and her sister, Virginia Bell of Port Huron, MI.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. Monday at Maryland Veterans Cemetery in Crownsville.

Local arrangements are by Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home,

P.A., in Chester, MD.
