“ A short story – Our family became friends with the Brady’s when living in Puerto Rico in the late 1960s and the “Back 40” was in vogue and “Stop 8” was the place to spend the weekend at the beach. Fast forward 3 years and good fortune had it the Brady’s were a little over an hour away in Norfolk while we had moved to Elizabeth City, NC. One afternoon during a visit, I had opportunity to explore the tidal basin and small dock behind the Brady’s house. As luck would have it, I caught my first soft shell crab ever and proudly took my catch to the house to ask Mrs. Brady what to do with it. Smiling she said, “I’ll take care of that for you” and was treated to a tomato sandwich. I never knew what happened to that soft shell crab.

God bless you Rudy and all of the family. Our fond memories of you will always be with us.##imported-begin##Michael P. Ivanovsky##imported-end##
