

Sadie Keen

June 12, 2003

Dr. Sadie Agnes Singer Keen of Earlvile, MD died Thursday, June 12, 2003 at the Christiana Hospital in Christiana, DE. She was 88.

Born January 25, 1915 in Noblestown, PA, she was the daughter of the late Walter and Anna Bertha Singer. Dr. Keen was a very educated woman who began her teaching career when she was twenty. Being a very gifted teacher she helped many people with learning disabilities as well as kids of all ages to understand and learn whatever it was she was teaching. She would even tutor for anyone, anytime and anywhere they may be and even though she was deemed as a demanding individual, people loved her. Dr. Keen received a Masters degree from the University of Delaware another Masters degree from Temple University and her Doctorate from NOVA University in Florida. She was the first woman to receive a Masters degree in Reading from the University of Delaware. Throughout her career teaching she received every award for a teacher in the State of Delaware.

Dr. Keen was a member of the St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Earlvile, MD, where she devoted many hours to the church and teaching Sunday School to the children. She was also a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Dr. Sadie Agnes Singer Keen was preceded in death by her husband, William Henry Taylor Keen as well as her brother, Walter Singer.

Dr. Keen is survived by her son, Taylor Lee Keen of Earlvilleville, MD; two grandchildren, Taylor Lee Keen II of Maryland and Sharon Jane Keen of Earlvilleville, MD and a sister, Delmar Poppinger of Imperial, PA.

A Memorial service will be held Sunday, June 15, 2003 at 3:30 PM at the St. Stephens Episcopal Church in Earlvilleville, MD.

In Lieu of flowers the family suggests contributions be made to the St. Stephens Episcopal Church Memorial Fund, 10 Glebe Rd., Earlvilleville, MD 21919.

Arrangements handled by the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 226 E. Main St., Cecilton, MD.
