Samuel Cassidy

January 30, 1941 - December 4, 2014

Samuel James Cassidy of Stevensville, MD, died suddenly on December 5, 2014, in Washington, DC. He was 73.

Born on January 1, 1941, in Woburn, MA, he was the first generation of immigrant parents Samuel James Cassidy of Donegal, Ireland, and Rachel Johnston of Glasgow, Scotland. Samuel spent his career in the Boiler Control Industry working in Boston, New Orleans, and Washington, DC areas for many years. He was currently the owner operator of Coast Combustion in Stevensville, MD.

He enjoyed horse riding, reading and music. He was a member of Safe Harbor Presbyterian Church in Stevensville, MD.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 53 years Eva Cassidy, two sons, Alan Cassidy of Benson, NC, and Paul Cassidy of Aiea, HI; sister, Caroline Bain of Denver, CO; and six grandchildren. He was predeceased by two sisters, Elizabeth Carlson and Muriel Maxwell.

A memorial service will be held 10:30 a.m. on Thursday December 11, 2014, at Safe Harbor Presbyterian Church in Stevensville where family and friends may visit and hour before. Interment will be privately held in Lakemont Memorial Gardens in Davidsonville, MD.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to Samaritans Purse, P.O. Box 3000, Boone, NC 28607 or samaritanspurse.org.

Cemetery Details

Lakemont Memorial Gardens

900 W. Central Ave.
Davidsonville, MD 21035

Previous Events

Memorial Service

DEC 11. 10:30 AM (ET)

Safe Harbor Presbyterian Church
931 Love Point Road
Stevensville, MD

Tribute Wall

BZ

Eva and the Cassidy Family,
I have worked with Sam on many projects as well as business ventures, he was truly a living legend in the combustion controls field and there were not many his equal. He was widely respected by everyone that knew or worked with Sam in the industry. Sam was one of the nicest people I ever had to privilege to have met. Sam will be missed.

bill zielinski - December 09, 2014 at 03:16 PM