Sammy was a fun and enjoyable participant at Camp. Always kept you laughing. He was a gentle giant to me. Upon his arrival at Camp and I needed to take his photo, we had the biggest laugh when I need to stand to take his photo because he was so tall (I only stand about 4'11) and when I had to look up at him he said wait a minute, and got down on his knees for me to take the photo. I told him he just wanted to be on my level and we all just laughed as he got up. He will always be remembered each time I take a photo on check in day.
