

Samuel "Tony" A. Iacona

December 15, 1968 - September 25, 2024

Tony Iacona, age 55, passed away Wednesday September 25th, 2024. He was born on December 15th, 1968 in Easton, Maryland to the late Samuel Anthony Iacona, Sr. and Barbara Sue Hickman. Tony is survived by his beloved wife and partner of nearly 30 years, Laura Iacona; their 2 loving children, Megan Iacona (Fred) & Sam Iacona (Greg); 3 dear siblings, Michael Sean Iacona, Sr. (Melanie), Annette Iacona, & Dawn Cohee; and 3 cherished nephews, Michael, Jr. (Amanda), Brandon (Autumn), & Noah.

Tony had a true passion for nature and animals. He enjoyed maintaining his flower garden every Spring. Tony was known to pick wildflowers in random places- always to be gifted to his adoring wife, Laura. Observing the deer near his home provided a consistent sense of joy and serenity. In addition to deer, Tony appreciated eagles: not just the bird but also the Philly team! Tony often referred to his home as his "piece of dirt". This "piece of dirt" provided his "man cave" of a garage, where he spent endless hours tinkering around with car repairs and watching football or old Western movies. Tony was generous with his Love and help to others, be it stranger or friend. Tony's greatest passion of all was his love for family and friends. He will be truly missed by all who knew and loved him.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 5th, 2024 1pm at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home 408 S. Liberty Street

“ I remember meeting Tony (who I knew as Mr. Iacona) when I was Megan's college roommate. He was so kind and it was so clear how much love he had for his family. I always enjoyed talking with him when he would come to visit, usually as Megan and I were getting ready to go home for breaks.

Tony (Mr. Iacona) will forever be a part of my college story. The morning of college graduation, Megan and I left something behind at the dorm. He calmly (and quickly) drove us back to get our missing items, and we all made it back in time for the ceremony. It is one memory of college I will always cherish. His care for others was so evident and he will be so missed. Sending so much love, Iacona family.

“Man this one really stings deep and hits a lil different. I met Tony when I was around 7. And from the first day I met him, I always looked up to him and idolized him for his energy that is unmatched to this day. For his caring, loving, passionate, genuine, and hilarious personality. When we met he extended his hand and said “what’s up buck” so I went to shake his hand and he pulled me in for one of the most legendary bear hugs as he picked me up off my feet and gave me a kiss on my head, then he put me down and said “I’ll be your huckleberry.” Winked his eye and said “love you buck.” And walked into the kitchen. I was like wtf just happened. And as a grown man and to this day, everytime I seen him that’s what he would do. Then behind him came one of the most powerful, heart melting hugs from his loving wife Laura that I’ll never forget. And then I was introduced to his 2 beautiful children, and we played for hours day after day for years to come. On that day we became family. A family that I would learn to grow and cherish to this day. A family i never had. I’ll never forget the pure love and genuineness I felt everytime he did it. He was one of my stepdads best friends and played a major role in shaping who I am today. Through Tony and my step dad I learned what true, pure, genuine love was and what the word family ment and how family always has each others back and be there for each other. And then life happens and sometimes gets the best of us, and eventually my mom and my stepdad would respectively go there separate ways. But I never forgot about anybody I met on Downs Chapel, and would return to check on each one periodically and I’ll admit it wasn’t as much as I would have liked to especially cause I was away for about 5 years and then I came back around and have been struggling with work and finances and jus life taking its toll. But I knew if I ever needed anything or if I jus wanted to stop and say hi, they would always be there. And that if he ever needed me or anything, that I would be there for him. They showed me to always show love, where love is shown. The only thing is, is that I took that always for granted... I didn’t think I would ever see the day that the people I cherished and loved and looked up to the most in the world and taught me so much on how to be a man and how to spread love and joy and the power of a smile, would leave me so soon. I envied the way he showed and expressed his love for and to his kids and his amazing wife. It was somethin I had never seen before. Living on Downs Chapel was the absolute best part of my childhood and I wouldn't change it for the world. The heavens gained one hell of an Angel with this one. It was a pleasure and a honor getting to kno Tony as a child and as an adult. He always remained the same man since the day I met him and never let nothing or no one dictate or change the morals and principals on which he stood for... He along with his family accepted me from day one and never once placed any kind of judgement towards me and I'll forever be grateful and cherish that. You will forever b missed and never forgotten. Tell my step dad "bubba" and my mom I said I love them and yall better keep checkin that gate for me..
