

Sandra "Sandy" Kay Brewer

January 16, 1942 - December 19, 2023

Sandra Kay Brewer "Sandy" of Stevensville, MD passed away on December 19th, 2023. She was 81 years old.

Born on January 16th, 1942, in Star City, Arkansas, she was the daughter of the late Fred and Ada Owens.

Sandy graduated from Little Rock Central High School, class of 1960. After graduating, she pursued a Library Sciences degree at Little Rock University. After working as a secretary and typist, Sandy took a job within The Department of Defense, which allowed her to travel the country, and finally retired as the Security Manager of the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis in 1995.

In 1980, Sandy met her soon-to-be husband Buddy, a boat mechanic at Turkey Point Marina, where she docked her boat and spent her free time enjoying music and sunshine with her close friends. Soon after in 1981, Sandy gave birth to their daughter Lee Anne Fleming. Sandy resided in Annapolis Maryland until 1996 when she moved to Kent Island, Maryland.

Later in life, Sandy enjoyed being an inspiration, entertainer, and motivator to her three grandchildren. She spent her days telling stories, reading mysteries, cooking, and caring for her family. Sandy had a remarkable sense of humor and never met a person she couldn't make laugh. She was a generous and reliable woman who always had advice to spare, specializing in tough love and warm hugs.

Sandy is survived by her daughter, Lee Anne Fleming of Stevensville, Maryland, and three grandchildren, Brianna Fleming, Dylan Nash, and Gavin Lindner, one great-granddaughter Leilani Nash, two sisters Anne Owens-Burnside and Bennie Owens-Adams, and one nephew, Raymond Williams. In addition to her parents, she is preceded by her husband, Harold "Buddy" Fleming.

A private family ceremony will be held at a later date at the Benton Cemetery in Eaglette, Arkansas
