“ We well remember Sarah and Raymond fondly in our congregation at Easton First Wesleyan when we pastored there. The supportive love they gave to their pastor and wife will never be forgotten! Their faithfulness to be in God's house was a good example to their family and many others!

Sarah loved her family! It was good for her to have a large family! God has indeed blessed Sarah with a additional Grands and great grands!

She is Home with Jesus! She is also visiting with our Stacia! Heaven holds such treasures for us to one day be reunited with again! What a time in Heaven's Glory we will one day have too!

God bless you dear family members, we send our sympathy, our prayers and our love!##imported-begin##Pastor Paul and Sally Sheets##imported-end##

“ I can remember how Sarah and Raymond would have parties for the kids of Newcomb. It was the best of times and now the worst of times. It has been years since I saw Sarah, but she has never been forgotten; and will never be forgotten. The 8mm movies she took of the parties. Myself, Jr Marshall, Meade LLoyd, Billy Simmons, Bonnie Smith, Elsie Kilmon, Eileen Cherbonnier, Ray and Jeff (toddlers then) and probably a few I haven't mentioned. Sorry...I will remember you Sarah and thanks for being a part of so many lives.##imported-begin##Melvin E Marshall Sr##imported-end##
