

Scot Munroe

September 21, 1961 - June 27, 2026

Scot Munroe, 64, of Chestertown, Maryland died on June 27, 2026.

Scot was born in Eugene, Oregon on September 21, 1961, to Rich and Mary Jeanne Munroe. He graduated from Salpointe Catholic High School in Tucson, Arizona as a Presidential Scholar. He received a Bachelor's Degree from Harvard University and a Ph.D. from Stanford University. During his time at Stanford, he met Sheri Moores. They fell in love and were married on February 29, 1996.

Scot devoted many years to being a stay-at-home father, taking pride in caring for his family and providing healthy meals, as well as a steady presence at home. He enjoyed playing tennis in his younger years, then later became a force on the pickleball court. He was an enthusiastic fan of many sports. He had a lifelong love of science and critical thinking and was always eager to explain scientific concepts to others. He carefully managed the family's finances, applying his analytical mind to everyday life with diligence and thoughtfulness. Whether hiking through a park, observing the natural world, or browsing the internet for new information, he found joy in learning new facts and sharing knowledge with others. He is survived by his wife of 30 years, Sheri; daughter, Clare; son, Brady; sister, Kristen; brother, Michael; as well as many nieces and nephews, and great nieces and nephews.

There will be a celebration of Scot's life at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Chestertown on Sept 20, 2026, at 3pm; please add memories of Scot to the page below.

If you wish to make a memorial contribution to honor Scot, please consider a donation to your local public library. Scot enjoyed the pursuit of knowledge and public libraries were among his favorite places, because they make learning accessible to everyone.

“ I'll always remember the summer you spent on our orchard in Beamsville picking fruit, sorting fruit, eating fruit & .....throwing fruit! We had some wicked tennis matches and bike rides. I was 17 and you 14, but you imparted much more knowledge to me than I to you "Mr. Brainiac" of the house. You'll be missed. -Cousin Julie
