

Scott Dodd Hammersley

December 24, 1956 - November 16, 2020

Scott Dodd Hammersley, of Stevensville, MD, died at his home on November 16, 2020, at the age of 63.

He was born on December 24, 1956, in Alexandria, VA. Raised by his mother, Helena Francis (Shook) Hammersley, he was a lifelong resident of Virginia until recently moving to Cove Creek Club, Maryland, where he could enjoy the beautiful sunrises and sunsets over the Chesapeake Bay. His intentions for retirement were to enjoy boating on the Bay, and spending some of the winters in the Florida Keys.

Scott was known for his incredible sense of humor and gift to make people laugh. He loved having friends and family around him, enjoying great food, good wine, and loving company.

Finding an early interest in music, Scott played the blues harp in his late teens and then turned his interest towards guitar. He became a local name in Rock and Roll and was seen often performing in clubs around the Washington area, Richmond, and Colonial Beach. His love of music and his ability to “drop them to their knees” persisted until his death.

Scott was a self-made man working his way up in the commercial construction industry, from driver to executive. Ultimately, he helped pioneer the success of Newington Concrete and New Rock Materials to be the largest privately owned Ready Mix Concrete provider in Virginia. His bragging book included the construction of the new Woodrow Wilson Bridge, the Springfield Mixing Bowl Interchange and the Pentagon repair post 9/11. His success led to a sale of the company, and he was able to retire in 2006.

Scott is survived by his wife, Ivy Avila; daughters, Megan Wade (Aaron) of Annapolis, MD, and Linsey Hammersley of Fredericksburg, VA; stepson, Nicholas Jones of Vienna, VA; sisters, Patsy Mankin and Gwen Redcorn; and three grandchildren, Camden, Blake and Archer Wade

Donations may be made in his honor to <https://hungryformusic.org>. A celebration of life is being planned for late spring.

“ We are stunned to hear that Scott is gone - he was a dear friend when he lived in King George. Our heartfelt sympathy to all the family. He was a good man. I teased him when he moved to the Eastern Shore that he had moved to God's country (that is where I was born and raised) and he agreed 100%. I'm glad he got to spend time doing what he loved. Here's a couple of photos from way back when....

“ From the first time we met on the dock at the marina he treated me with like a friend. Over the years we got to know each other as we were the same age and enjoyed a lot of the same things. I will always cherish our friendship as it was to short and only wish I'd been able to see you one more time. Life is to short 😔

“ We are saddened to learn of Scott's passing, so quickly after having just visited with him a little over a day before. We have a treasure trove of memories of times spent boating with Scott and Ivy, the laughs, the conversations, dinners, the "Bourbon Boys" and general times. We will hold all those memories close in our hearts as we remember our close friendship with him. Our sincerest condolences to Ivy, Nick, Megan and Linsey. RIP Scott ... your pain is over but your legacy lives on in all of us.

Scott had the uncanny ability to tell a story with such humor it would make us laugh, and that would make him laugh, and his laugh was absolutely infectious and would make us laugh more. What wonderful moments we shared and memories we have with time spent with all of you, there in VA or up here in NJ. He was a presence, to be sure, and he will leave a huge void. Love and hugs to you Ivy, and to Nick, Megan, and Lindsey. Lid and Frank
