

Scott Lyle Lamb

August 23, 2001

Scott L. Lamb of Stevensville, MD, died on August 23, 2001, at his home. He was 48.

Born on February 20, 1953, in Washington DC, he was the son of the late Lyle and Joyce Jack Lamb. He grew up in Wheaton and graduated from Wheaton High School. A self-employed boat mechanic, he moved to Stevensville, MD, in 1981, where he continued his work until his death. Mr. Lamb enjoyed water skiing and loved the Bay and outdoor recreations such as hunting and fishing.

Mr. Lamb is survived by a son, Christopher P. Hicks of Stevensville; three brothers, Bruce Lamb of Sterling, VA, Dean Lamb of King George, VA, and Dwight Lamb of Stevensville, MD; and his niece and nephew, Kyle and Amy.

Services will be held 3:00PM on Tuesday, August 28, 2001, at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Chester. Burial will be private.

Contributions may be made to the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, 162 Prince George Street Annapolis, MD, 21401.
