Scott McKinley Whye, 56, passed away peacefully on May 14, 2024 in the tender care of Compass Hospice in Centreville, MD

Scott was born on February 16, 1968 at Chestertown Hospital to the late Ralph and Joan (Wilmore) Whye. Scott was raised in Worton, MD in the community of Bigwoods.

At the age of ten, Scott began working for Edward McDowell and Weitemeyer Farms. Scott used his earnings to buy his own school clothes and shoes.

Scott graduated from Kent County High School in 1986. While in school he enrolled in masonry classes taught by Bob Gordon, who assured him "I will teach you a trade. A trade that will always allow you to work for yourself."

After graduating, Scott received a masonry apprenticeship with Allen Tyler Company of Cambridge, MD. Scott was affectionately known as "Block Whye" or "McKinley". The nickname "Block Whye" was given because of his resemblance to his father and working in masonry.

Scott went on to work in many regional areas ranging from New Jersey to Virginia and throughout the MD/DC metro areas. He later went on to work for Diamond State Masonry in New Castle, DE. Scott's work was highly regarded, with many considering him the go-to person for fixing things at work. Due to his outstanding work ethic Scott was soon promoted to foreman. Scott served as foreman for three significant local projects: YMCA in Chestertown, MD, Animal Care Shelter in Worton, MD, and Queen Anne's County Circuit Courthouse in Centreville, MD. Scott worked at Diamond State Masonry for over 10 years, last working on September 8, 2022.

Scott married Pamela (Downes) on September 9, 2017, in Bigwoods, MD. Scott and Pamela shared a love for remodeling and flipping houses. That love led him to enroll in and graduate from Wor-Wic Community College's Construction Academy: Basic Construction I & II Course. Scott had plans to take the MHIC test prior to becoming ill. Scott accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior at his home church, New Christian Chapel of Love (NCCOL) in Bigwoods, MD.

Scott was preceded in death by his parents, Ralph Whye and Joan Whye; his sister, Cassandra Harris, and his brother, Glenn Whye.

Survivors include his wife, Pamela Whye; his three sisters, Peggy Brown of Chestertown, MD; Judith Ford of Bigwoods, MD, and Patricia Whye of Philadelphia, PA; one brother, Jeffrey Whye of Baltimore, MD; two daughters, Tiara Gray of North Beach, MD and Asia Whye of Chestertown, MD; one son, Malique Whye of Crofton, MD; two step-daughters; Sheonte Blake of Chestertown, MD and Lakesha Rochester of Chestertown, MD; and one step-son, Marvel Rochester of Chestertown, MD; one aunt, Carol Lyons of Philadelphia, PA; one uncle, Kenny Whye of Chester, PA; one sister-in-law/love, Jacqueline Whye of Baltimore, MD, seven grandchildren, three close family friends Brook Harris, Charles Leavy and Bo Wilson, and a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, cousins, godchildren, friends, church family, and loved ones.

There will be a two hour visitation starting at 10:00am.

A celebration of life service will be held at Chestertown Baptist Church on Saturday, May 25, 2024 at 12:00pm. The repast will be held immediately following the service, in the fellowship hall at Chestertown Baptist. Interment will be at New Christian Chapel of Love UMC Cemetery, Bigwoods, MD immediately following the repast at 4:00pm.

“ I am from Caroline County Maryland. But I used to come stay with my aunt and uncle during the summer. Scott's family lived a few houses back from my family. Scott welcomed me as a friend upon meeting me. Years later we would compete in football he played for Kent County and I played for North Caroline. He was bigger than me at the time, but when he ran the ball and I came up to tackle him he would get up off the ground, look at me and say good hit cuz! I am sorry I did not hear about his passing until after his funeral. I would have liked to come and pay my respect! Rest in peace big guy: you have earned your rest from trials and tribulation!
