

Scott L. Williams

March 2, 2007

Lt. Col. Scott L Williams (USAF Ret), 89, of Chestertown, MD, died March 2, 2007, at Heron Point in Chestertown.

Born in Marlow, OK, he was the son of J. Don and Elendor Williams. He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Mary Ellen Williams, of Chestertown; a son, Lansing and his wife Susan of Chestertown and Donnell and his wife Wanthana of Herndon, VA; his grandchildren, Eva, Galadreal, Lorien, and Robert; and two brothers. His parents, a brother and three sisters preceded him in death.

Lt. Col. Williams graduated from Oklahoma State University with a BS in Electrical Engineering and received his MS in Meteorology from New York University, with further studies at Stockholm Sweden's International Institute of Meteorology.

He entered the Army Air Corp in World War II, enlisting as a cadet, receiving training in Grand Rapids, MI, where he met his wife, whom he married on June 12, 1945. After the war, he worked for Westinghouse Electric before returning to the Air Force. At the time of his retirement, he was with the Directorate of Scientific Services, Headquarters, Air Weather Service. He was stationed in Bermuda, Morocco, and Sweden, where he attended school and several US posts. After his Air Force career, he joined the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration where he worked on the BOMEX project, and in Iran where he was setting up a national Iranian weather service until the Shah of Iran was deposed.

After retirement, the Williams made their home in Annapolis for 13 years, before coming to Heron Point.

In his early years, he enjoyed hunting and fishing, before cultivating a love for sailing. He logged over 10,000 miles cruising on his three boats, from Nova Scotia to the Bahamas, and, of course, on his beloved Chesapeake Bay. He was a volunteer for the Chester River Keeper, and was the first president of the Heron Point Internet Users Group.

Over the course of his lifetime, Mr. Williams was the recipient of numerous awards and commendations for his professional and avocational achievements.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at Heron Point's Wesley Hall on March 24, 2007, at 3:00 PM, with interment at Arlington National Cemetery on April 26, 2007.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that contributions be made to a charity of choice in his memory.

Tribute Wall

“ Scott L. Williams

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Scott L. Williams

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Scott L. Williams

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM