“ My heartfelt condolences to the Crabson family for your loss. I had the great pleasure of working with Sharon in the mid 90's in Florida. She had a way of keeping everyone grounded in the midst of a stressful environment. Her playful personality, compassion, and wicked sense of humor fed our souls. My heart aches that I was not able to reconnect with Sharon sooner. I just had reached out to her on Facebook, when I read of her passing. My prayers are with her family.. Rest In Peace Sharon, love Lauralee Novak

We only had a short amount of time to get to know Sharon, but anybody who had met her would be immediately impressed with her. Intelligent, gracious, caring, interesting, spiritual, beautiful, these are all great descriptions that only touch on who she was, but the best way I could testify for her was that she was what a human being was designed to be-someone you smile about when you remember them. Thank you Sharon for being a bright candle and sharing your light. Bill and Laverne, thank you for being such great neighbors, and allowing me the honor to get to know your family. I will remember Sharon and smile.

“ Sharon was a teenager when I spent a month or so living with her family in Ft. Lauderdale while we searched for an apartment for me. I remember her as adventurous, fun-loving, happy, and with a great smile. She and Brian were the only kids in the house during that time. While I’m sure they had their share of sibling moments, my overall memory of them was one of closeness.

Years later, I met up with Sharon again at her parents’ retirement ceremony. She seemed poised, very comfortable with herself, gracious. And there was that great smile!

While at first her move to Alaska was a surprise, I quickly realized that such a decision really fit Sharon nicely- striking out to plant her flag and continue her life in such a far away and relatively remote place. A real-life adventure, for an adventurous spirit.

Allen & I have been praying for Sharon since she fell ill. We’ve also been praying for her dear parents and other family members these past months as they have tenderly cared for Sharon. It is now our prayer that our Father in Heaven will envelope, embrace and surround you with His comforting Presence during these very difficult days.

“ Words cannot express the gratitude I feel for Sharon's friendship the past 16 years. She was the most humble and gracious friend I ever had. She never sat in judgement and stood by my through good and bad decisions. She was the best roommate, co worker, interior decorator, house sitter, and best friend I could ever ask for. I will miss her laugh and shuttle ways of telling me to act like a lady. My condolences to her family. I truly wish I could attend her services but glad I was able to visit with her in Alaska. Sharon is at peace now and the world has gained a wonderful angel. Love to family and friends. I'm thankful for the memories we made for so many years Sharon.

“ To the Crabson family and to Sharon's friends:,
Sharon Crabson changed my life by her wondrous personality, her grace and style combined with loveliness, laughture and her undying loyalty to her friends and family. Her very essence inspired me to be a better person. She kept those she cared about close to her heart and never let them go, making wonderful memories with all of her friends and family by bring present in their life. She did this for me at a time when I was going through a great sadness and she reached out on many occasions to let me know she cared. And it helped me heal and it gave me hope and trust in true friendship and love...her energy made me feel a part a family, and that I will always treasure. She loved life to the fullest and I do believe she had a deep appreciation of all that was good in her life, of God and of her friends, family, home and Sadie.

My deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences go out to her amazing parents, Bill and Laverne Crabson, as well as to: Brian, Nancy, Renie, Abbi and Luke...And to all of Sharon's friends in AK, Amy and all her older friends from her earlier days..I'm enriched by all of you and am glad we met on the prayer train for our girl...love and, "Immortal Peace," forever darling Sharon...your gone now but you will never be forgotten.

Love,
Juliette (Julia)

“ Sharon was in a Bible Study class as part of her youth participation at The Salvation Army in the late 70's. She, along with her sister Nancy, participated with my daughters Debbie and Jennifer in the activities connected with that program. As one of the Bible Study teachers I was able to observe Sharon and found her to be a vibrant, funny, unique and such a joy. I did not have contact with her as she grew into young womanhood until I learned of her illness. What a beautiful woman she had become. Jim and I were devastated to learn of her illness and saddened to learn of her passing. Our love and heartfelt sympathy go out to Bill, Laverne, Nancy and Brian. You will remain in our prayers as you go through the days grieving. We are praying you will know the peace that only God can give you during this time..

“ My deepest sympathy, love and prayers are with the Crabson family during this difficult time. Sharon and I were inseparable friends in the 1980's and I had reconnected with her in the last few years through Facebook. It was such a joy to have her in my life again and I was so shocked and saddened when she became ill. I have so many fond memories of the things we did together, the long, late night talks, the laughter and the love. She was a truly amazing and beautiful person with a zest for life, an infectious laugh and a real heart of gold. I will miss her and love her always.

“ Sharon was one of the kindest and most gracious women I have had the pleasure knowing. I met her through a friend and it was as if we had been friends forever. She helped turn our house into a home with her eye for color. She added her touch to make it "perfect and peaceful". I believe heaven is a better place because she is there. Love and prayers to all who knew and loved her. Sharon you are missed and have impacted so many people with you positive outlook, smile & laughter, and the way you loved everyone you met. “ I worked closely with Sharon for a good 8 or so years. She was always a light, happy, joyful, sweet, funny, kind. hard working, smart, loving friend. She taught me how to be a better person. Her laugh is in my mind forever. Ill never forget it. Girdwood will never be the same. When someone like Sharon goes through what she did. Makes me wonder. It takes "not fair" to a whole new level. all I can say is that I loved her like a sister, and will miss her, and remember her forever.
