July 22, 1956 - April 18, 2022

Sharon Priscilla Duckery Greene of Dover, DE, passed away on April 18, 2022, after a short illness. She was 65.

Sharon was born in Talbot County on July 22, 1956, to Virginia Duckery and the late Theodore Duckery and was raised in Chesterville, MD. Sharon's early education was in the Kent County school system where she graduated from Kent County High School in 1974. She later furthered her education by receiving diplomas from Del Tech Community College in Dover, DE. Sharon was employed at I.L.C. of Dover, DE, for 36 years.

Sharon's joy and the love of her life was her late husband "Snake" Wade Greene. From this marriage they had one son, DeVar Wade Greene, of whom she was a proud mother, especially after the death of her husband, sometimes as a mother being overprotective.

Sharon at an early age went to Asbury United Methodist Church where she received Christ and was Baptized. Sharon enjoyed crocheting, knitting, volleyball, basketball, football and her favorite team the Eagles. She was a member of the club, The Royal Flush of Millington, during its hay-day and she loved playing Spades.

Sharon was preceded in death by her husband, Sherrell "Snake" Wade

Greene; step-daughter, Michelle Greene; father, Theodore Duckery; maternal grandparents, John and Lillian Johnson; paternal grandparents, Western and Ida Duckery; father- and mother-in-law, the late William Albert and Jessie Greene; and niece, Monica Rochester.

Sharon leaves to cherish her memories, one son, DeVar Wade Greene (Evelyn); mother, Virginia Duckery; one sister, Shirley Duckery; sister-in-law, Teresa Davis (Howard); nephews, Deon Duckery and James Kennard; an uncle, William Duckery; and aunts, Shirley Maddox, Marion Kennedy, Evelyn Foster, Jeretta Duckery and Yvonne Duckery. Sharon also had a host of cousins, especially Louis (Joe) Duckery (Nina); and special friends, Whitney Wood (Steve) and Charles Clark (Sharon).
