

Sharon Lorraine Lewis

November 6, 1949 - March 27, 2021

Sharon Lorraine Lewis of Chester, MD passed away suddenly on Saturday, March 27, 2021. She was 71 years old.

Born on November 6, 1949, in Washington D.C, to Lillian Virginia Teeple. Sharon also resided in Hyattsville, MD; Greenbelt, MD and finally enjoyed the Eastern Shore for six years in Chester.

Sharon loved the United States and was a die-hard Washington Redskins fan. Devoted to her family and friends, Sharon was proud of the accomplishments of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved the beach and enjoyed visiting Ocean City each year; her favorite place was St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. She loved to read Steven King novels and solving murder mysteries on t.v. Absolutely, in love with John Walsh (America's Most Wanted) and was excited to receive a signed photo of him. Enjoyed Criminal Minds and Golden Girls marathons on the weekends. Dr. Phil; Ellen; and Judge Judy were among her favorite shows.

Sharon is survived by her loving husband of 33 years Dennis Kane; her children Tina Hoitt, William (Billy) Lewis, Jr; Her grandchildren Tiffany (Lewis) Love; John Love, Jr. (Husband of Tiffany); Bradley Lewis-LaMar; Troy Lee Lewis; Hana Hoitt and Emma Hoitt. Six great grandchildren; Briana Thomas; Ethan Love; Colton Thomas; Kennedi Love; Lillian Lewis and Madden Love.

Sharon is also survived by her brother and sisters, John (JC) Chandler; Dinah (Dee) Erickson; Diane (Di) Rainwater and Katherine (Kitty) Windsor.

A celebration of life for Sharon will be held on Thursday, April 8th from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the American Legion Post 40 in Glen Burnie, MD.
