

Sharon Lee Smith

November 19, 1940 - December 20, 2025

Sharon Lee Smith, 85, of Easton, Maryland, passed away peacefully on December 20, 2025. Born on November 19, 1940, to Gerald and Francis Lyon, Sharon grew up on Bennett Point in Queenstown, Maryland, where many of her fondest memories were made. She graduated from Centreville High School in June of 1958.

Sharon and her first husband, James Weston, proudly owned and operated Weston's Outboard in Queenstown. Over the years, she also worked as a manager at Dunkin Donuts in Easton and at Dress Barn in the Queenstown Outlets. Sharon had a true gift for sewing, crocheting, and knitting, and she found great joy in creating homemade gifts for the people she loved. Giving those gifts was her way of sharing her heart.

Sharon was preceded in death by her parents and by her beloved husband, Roy. She is survived by her sisters, Christy Lyon and Laurie Allen; her children, Jamie Weston and Jeanne (Mike) Pavero; her grandchildren, Kelsey Weston, Bridget Collins, Katie Collins, and Gage Collins; and several great-grandchildren. Above all, she will always be remembered as "Mom-Mom," a name that captured the love she gave so freely.

A graveside service will take place at 12 noon, on Friday, January 2nd, 2026, at Woodlawn Memorial Park, 11365 Ocean Gateway, Easton, Maryland 21601.

“ I remember my cousin is one of the sweetest people in the world. Wish we could've spent more time together, but the Miles kept us separate. May she rest in peace with family and friends. She will be sorely missed

I also worked with Sharon at Dunkin. She taught me a lot as she managed the store and I did the books. You wouldn't have wanted a sweeter person to work with and become a friend. Prayers to her family.
