“ To all of Sharon's family and those who loved her, What a loss for all of us. I moved away from Kent County almost 13 years ago and still read the Kent County News every week. I can't describe my sadness when I read of Sharon's illness and death. I loved being around Sharon, loved her infectious smile and loved her personality. There is no doubt that she will be missed by everyone who knew her! Please accept our sympathy. We will certainly keep all of you in our prayers. “ To the Morris family and the boys:
Words can't express what I was feeling Friday night when I arrive in NC. at our daughter's and saw that Sharon had passed away. Many a night Sharon called me and we talked about how she felt. Sharon adored her family and most of all she didn't want to leave the grandchildren. Sharon gave it all she had to beat the odds and knew that God had a better plan. I hope that all of you can heal together and know that she was a wonderful person and touched many lives. Hang on to all the memories you have and please make sure to love those grandchildren for her.###imported-begin###George and Candy Wilson###imported-end##

“ I am greatly saddened by the passing of my dear mother in-law Sharon. Since I first started dating her son Josh, she has been there for me. She was like my second mother. She told me that I was like the daughter that she never had. We had many great times together. I was blessed to have her as one of my bridesmaids in our wedding. I also am grateful that I blessed her with two grandsons, Benjamin and Jackson. She was a wonderful grandmother. Sadly, she passed away before meeting Jackson. We loved her very much. I will treasure the wonderful memories of her. May God bless her.##imported-begin##Amanda Sutton##imported-end##
