Sharyn Goode Harlow

June 28, 1956 – October 5, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce Sharyn Harlow, wife of Donald Harlow, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving husband, their children, her dear mother, and family on Sunday, October 5, 2025.

Sharyn was born in New Orleans, LA on June 28, 1956, to Doris Greaver Goode and the late Henley Milton Goode Jr. She grew up in Staunton, VA where she was a member of the Trinity Episcopal Church. Sharyn met the love of her life at Robert E. Lee High School, and it was as a truly classic union – the cheerleader and football player. She graduated in 1974 and in the fall set off to study at Virginia Polytechnic Institute in Blacksburg, VA. Her heart won out though, and she and Don were married in December of 1974. They began their 50-year marriage in Brindisi, Italy where her husband was a United States Air Force service member stationed at San Vito dei Normanni Air Force Base. They lived in Italy for three years and ultimately made Maryland's Eastern Shore their home for the past 38 years.

Sharyn was active in her community and known and loved by so many. With her curly red hair and vibrant personality, she was unforgettable. Smart and hardworking, she had the tenacity and energy to accomplish anything she set her mind to. Her many talents led to a diverse professional career. She was a small business owner/operator of The Easy Way custom tailoring and alterations for many years, sewing many a dress for brides-to-be on the shore. She was especially proud of her work for the Reginald Truitt estate at Great Neck Farms on Kent Island, her contributions to the Chesapeake Bay Environmental Center (CBEC), and her service as a former member of the Queen Anne's County Board of Education for District 4.

Besides being a fabulous seamstress and gardener, she was an avid reader and follower of current events and loved collecting antiques and playing the slots. She was an extraordinary wife, mother, sister, and grandmommy.

Sharyn is survived by her husband Don; son Anthony Harlow and his wife Jill of Plattsmouth, NE; daughter Julie Harlow Perozzi of Cambridge, MD; and her five grandchildren Lillian Harlow, Layne Harlow, Caden Perozzi, Paxten Perozzi, and Kaylee Perozzi who were everything to her. In addition, she is survived by her mother; sisters Karen DiFlorio and her husband Patrick of Staunton, VA and Linda Goode Gallimore of Spartanburg, SC; aunt Linda Greaver of Christiansburg, VA; and uncle and aunt Rex and Joyce Greaver of Staunton, VA; as well as brother-in-law and sister-in-law Dale and Cheryl Harlow of Chester, VA; sister-in-law Bonnie Harlow (husband Bill Harlow deceased) of Staunton, VA; and several nieces and nephews.

A gathering to celebrate Sharyn's life will be announced at a later date.

Memorial gifts can be made in Sharyn's name to Haven Ministries. Inc. (www.haven-ministries.org).

“ I was very sad to hear this sad news. Sharon and I worked together at the QACo. Health Department for many years. Not only was she a great co-worker but we developed a supportive and close friendship . We shared lots of laughs and parenting stories. There was a long list of her talents and skills. My heart goes out to her family and especially her grands who will miss her.

“ Julie & Family-Ms. Sharyn was a huge part of our high school days hosting sleepover weekends and birthday parties. When I think of her I remember her red and white bronco with her personalized tag. She had a huge smile and an even bigger heart. Sending you my love, keeping you and your family in my prayers. Hold tight to your memories, heaven has surely gained a beautiful angel.

“ Dear Don, Our hearts are filled with sorrow and sadness but also wonderful memories of you and Sharyn. I remember the “new” little red haired girl that came to school in the 8th grade. We took to each other right away and oh the fun and adventures we shared! Sharyn was a lively girl and kept everyone who knew her thoroughly entertained! Many seasons have passed but the love we have for you and Sharyn will never cease. May God continue to bless you, Anthony, Julie, Mrs Goode, Karen and Linda, they too will always hold a special place in our hearts right along with Sharyn. Love, Cheryl & Dale

“ I just learned of Sharyn passing away. She was always such a warm and caring person to all who knew her. I am certain that Jesus has welcomed her with open arms. My condolences go out to Don, Anthony, Julie, and all the grandchildren. I can remember a great many family gatherings, some years back, and like others I will cherish her memory. I thank God for the opportunity to have known Sharyn. My God be with Doris and her family as they will see her again in Heaven.
