

Sheila Patricia Holden

March 17, 1941 - June 19, 2011

Sheila Patricia Holden died on June 19, 2011.

Born on March 17, 1941 in Grasonville, MD she was the daughter of the late, Joseph Kennard Buckel and Marjorie Marie Gardner. She grew up at Love Point on Kent Island and attended Stevensville High School. She married John E. Holden in 1960 and they lived in Queenstown where she was a homemaker. After the children were raised she worked for the Acme Supermarket in Stevensville. Throughout the years she enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She is survived by her beloved husband, John E. Holden, Sr.; two daughters, Karen Meiklejohn of Cordova, MD and Laura Saddler and her husband, Greg of Stevensville, MD; a son, John E. Holden, Jr. and his wife, Debbie of Queen Anne, MD; a brother, Joseph K Buckel of Chester, MD and Dolores Cockey of Chester, MD and Bonita Springs, FL; six grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

A visitation will be held on June 23, 2011 at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, in Centreville, MD where family and friends may call from 4 to 6 pm.

Interment will be private.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Dr., Easton, MD 21601.

“ God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be.
He wrapped her in his loving arms and whispered ‘Come with me.’
She suffered much in silence, her spirit did not bend.
She faced her pain with courage, until the very end.
She tried so hard to stay with us but her fight was not in vain,
God took her to His loving home and freed her from the pain.

“ You were my world,
My inspiration and my heart,
But when you left me,
I thought I would fall apart.

You were my best friend,
My one true 'confidante',
And that's not all you were,
You were also my mom.

I didn't want to live without you,
But you would have wanted me to,
And if there's anyone I want to make happy,
That anyone is you.

I would have given anything to have you back,
But I know now that it was meant to be,
For you are still watching from up there,
And I know you're watching me.

I'll make you proud mom,
I'm going to fulfill your wish,
You're going to see me and smile,
That's a daughter's promise.

“ A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me." Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good live I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how truly I was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.”

“ Please dont feel guilty, it was just my time to go, I see you are still feeling sad and the tears just seem to flow. We all come to earth for a life time, for some it's just not many years. I don't want you to keep crying, you are shedding so many tears. I really haven't left you although it may seem so, I have gone to my heavenly home, it's closer than you know. Just believe when you say my name, I am standing next to you, I know you long to see me, there is nothing I can do. But I will still send you messages and I hope you understand, that when your time comes to cross over, I will be there to take your hand.

Love and miss you every day...Laurie

“ You were there when we took our first steps,
And went unsteadily across the floor.
You pushed and prodded: encouraged and guided,
Until our steps took us out the door...
You worry now "Are they ok?"
Is there more you could have done?
As we walk the paths of our unknown
You wonder "Where have my children gone?"
Where we are is where you have led us,
With your special love you showed us a way,
To believe in ourselves and the decisions we make.
Taking on the challenge of life day-to-day.
And where we go you can be sure,
In spirit you shall never be alone.
For where you are is what matters most to us,
Because to us that will always be home...

“ I awake each morning to start a new day. But the pain of loosing you never goes away.
I go about the things I have to do. And as the hours pass I think again of you.
I want to call you and just hear your voice. Then I remember that I have no choice
For you are not there and now my heart cries. Just to see you again to tell you goodbye
To say Mama I love you and I always will. And hope that much of you, in me you've instilled.
The day that you left I just didn't know. That you were going where I couldn't go.
And now all my memories of you are so dear. But gosh, how I miss you and wish you were here.
Who now can hear me when I need to cry?. It so hard to tell you "Mama goodbye."
Someday I know all will be well. And I'll see you again with stories to tell
Of how you were missed and how we have grown. And how good it is to finally be home.
Until then my memories of you I'll keep near. And I'll pass them on to those who are dear.
I miss you Mama!

“ MY FIRST CHRISTMAS IN HEAVEN I see the countless Christmas trees around the world below With tiny lights like Heaven’s stars, reflecting on the snow. The sight is so spectacular, please wipe away the tear For I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year. I hear the many Christmas songs that people hold so dear But the sounds of music can’t compare with the Christmas choir up here. I have no words to tell you, the joy their voices bring, For it is beyond description, to hear the angels sing. I know how much you miss me, I see the pain inside your heart. But I am not so far away, We really aren’t apart. So be happy for me, dear ones, You know I hold you dear. And be glad I’m spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year. I sent you each a special gift, from my heavenly home above, I sent you each a memory of my undying love. After all love is a gift more precious than pure gold. It was always most important in the stories Jesus told. Please love and keep each other, as my Father said to do. For I can’t count the blessing or love he has for each of you. So have a Merry Christmas and wipe away that tear. Remember, I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

*Now that I am gone,
remember me with smiles and laughter.
And if you need to cry,
cry with your brother or sister
who walks in grief beside you.
And when you need me,
put your arms around anyone
and give to them what you need to give to me.
There are so many who need so much.
I want to leave you something -- something much better than words or sounds.
Look for me in the people I've known or helped in some special way.
Let me live in your heart
as well as in your mind.
You can love me most
by letting your love reach out to our loved ones,
by embracing them and living in their love.
Love does not die, people do.
So, when all that's left of me is love,
give me away as best you can.*

We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. “ My mother is gone, loving God. I am so grateful I was at her side as she breathed her last, her agony complete. She lived a full and complete life and all of us felt relieved, for a moment, when she finally slipped away to be at your side.

But now I am left with the sorrow and grief. My mother is gone. My mother who had been a part of my life for each day of it, is not here. I have such a sadness and it surprises me.

In her years of Alzheimer's, it seemed as if she died a little each day. The differences were almost invisible, but real. She responded less, sang less, prayed less. She became unsteady on her feet, then she could barely walk and her words made no sense. Finally, her loving eyes gazed on me with no recognition.

Watching that decline was hard over the last year and I grieved every time I saw her. I was letting her go with each visit as she slowly moved through the sacred "thin spaces" to be with us a little less each day, and as she drew a little closer to you each day.

Help me to rejoice with my mother in her new life of the resurrection. This is what her faith taught her and help that belief bring me comfort in my sorrow.##imported-begin##Laura##imported-end##

“ Dear Lord, relying on your promises to us, I turn to you in trust that my mother is with you and that she is enjoying your loving embrace. You alone know how she loved the best she could and how she faithfully endured the struggles that she faced. You know the graces you gave her and you know the grace she was for me and for so many. For all the ways she truly loved the way you loved her, please reward her, Lord. May she enjoy the communion of all her family and friends who are with you.

Lord, I know my mother still loves us who are still here on earth. I ask you that you might listen to her fervent prayers for us. Help me to grow into a new and deeper relationship with my mother now, as I long for the day when we will both meet in your embrace - freed from all that might have hindered our relationship on earth, knowing and understanding everything we did not know or understand on this earth.

I ask you this with faith in the resurrection, trusting my mother's love, and desiring that she know my love for her. Amen.##imported-begin##Children and grandchildren##imported-end##

“ *Mr. Buddy, Laurie, Karen and Johnny,
I know the loss you feel and nothing will ever change that, but you have a life time of wonderful memories of your mom. You guys were her life, I will always remember her with a dish towel thrown over her shoulder and her giggly laugh. When we were kids and I was always at your house, I know there had to be times when she was totally sick of me. But she never made me feel that way. She always had a way of making me feel like one her own. And even when we we grew up and I didnt see her as much, when I would run into to her somewhere it was like we had just left each other. Your mom has given you a great gift, she taught you each of you how to love and be strong, there is no greater gift. I know that Miss Pat and my mom are in heaven and if they are comparing notes, me and Laurie are in BIG trouble. Please know that my love and prayers are with you at this difficult time.*
