Oh my Sherri was a wonderful person. I will miss her smile as I walk into the court house as she would say what do you need now. We would laugh and would say see ya next week. I was say if the lord willing. I had no idea that would be my last time seeing her. My deepest condolences to Sherri's family.

She will truly be missed. 🙏🙏🙏😞

“ I worked with Sheri at the Annapolis District Court for a short period of time. She was the sweetest lady with such a great laugh and smile. Always happy and eager to help. I'm so sad to hear of her early passing. Prayers for all of her family and friends as they navigate through this trying time.

“ When I heard the news I was in disbelief. How could someone so full of life be gone at such a youth age! Remembering the times we had at Wildlife International. We did know how to have fun!! I remember your bright shining smile and carefree attitude, Your silver rings and curly hair. I remember our deep conversations about life and not settling for less then. Most of all I remember your heart. Your big beautiful caring heart. The world will be a little dimmer now. Rest easy Sheri <3
