

Sherman Eldred Edgell

November 25, 2000

Sherman Eldred Edgell, of Easton, died at his home on Saturday morning, November 25, 2000. He was 92.

Born in Baltimore, October 30, 1908, he was the son of the late Clarence Ray and Lulu Latshaw Edgell. As a child, he moved to Easton and was raised by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis K. Edgell. After graduating from Easton High School, he attended City College in Baltimore where he was manager of the golf team.

In 1928, he returned to Easton to the family grocery business where he was in partnership with his brother, Wilmer Edgell. During World War II, he served in the U. S. Coast Guard from 1941 until 1945. Following his release from active duty, he returned to the grocery business which was sold in the early 1950"s. After a brief stay in Florida, he opened his own mobile home business, Easton Mobile Home Sales. After selling that business in 1972, he remained active in the mobile home industry until retiring in 1981. A member, past usher and past trustee of the First Baptist Church in Easton, he was also a member of Talbot Post #70, American Legion, the AARP and the Delta Ki Sima Fraternity at City College.

Mr. Edgell is survived by his wife, the former Bette Stevens whom he married in October of 1962; a son, Lewis Ray Edgell of Midlothian, VA and a brother, Wilmer Edgell, of Easton.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, November 28th, at 2 P.M. at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, Easton. Burial will be at Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD. Friends may call at the funeral home on Monday evening, Nov. 26th, from 7 - 9 P.M.
