

Shirley Mae Outten

June 26, 1933 - August 29, 2012

Shirley Mae Outten, 79, of Easton, MD, passed away on Wednesday, August 29, 2012, at the University of MD Medical Center in Baltimore.

She was born in Amherst, VA, on June 26, 1933, to the late, Willie L. Campbell and Pearl Louise Richardson Campbell. She moved to Easton in 1950 where she worked as a telephone operator for C&P Telephone.

She enjoyed many years raising her four children and being a homemaker. In 1975, she and her husband began Lewis H. Outten, Inc., a plumbing, heating and electrical business in Trappe, MD. They had a successful business until retiring. They enjoyed traveling, and she worked many hours in her flower gardens and playing with her grandchildren, whom she adored.

Mrs. Outten is survived by her husband of 56 years, Lewis "Henry" Outten, Sr., the love of her life; four children, Sylvia Swann and her husband, Bob of Church Creek, Sandy Chance and her husband, Marty, of Easton, Lewis H. Outten, Jr., and his wife, Sandy, of Centreville, and L.H. Outten of Easton; sister, Gloria Jean Powell of Lynchburg, VA; nine grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren. Serving as pall bearers will be Marty Chance, Bob Swann, Luke Outten, Jeremy Allendorf, Timmy Allendorf, and Matt Swann.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday, September 4, 2012, from 6 – 8 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., in Easton. A funeral service will be held on Wednesday, September 5, 2012, at 11 a.m. at the funeral home.

Interment will follow in Whitemarsh Cemetery on Route 50 in Trappe.

MOM O- I will always remember how you and your family welcomed me with open arms! We spent many Sunday afternoons eating your home cooking and sharing stories of your childhood, raising children, working at the telephone company and laughing at the antics of your grand children Rebecca and Evan. I will treasure those memories forever!
