“ I was so sorry to learn of your Mothers passing. She was a lovely woman who will be missed. Even when she was feeling under the weather she always had a smile to greet me. If Libby is here I'm sorry to have missed you. Please know I'll be thinking of you all.##imported-begin##Sandi Schelts Sheahen##imported-end##

“ To my beautiful loving sister, Shirley, you brought light, love and life into our world and you meant the world to all of us. You touched so many people in your life and your loss will be felt by all. I will hold tight to the memories for comfort and cherish the special place in my heart that will always be reserved for you. I will miss you sadly and will always love you dearly. May the love of those around us help us through the days ahead. Your loving brother, Lester & Bertha Smith###imported-begin###Lester Smith###imported-end###

“ Debbie and family: Our deepest sympathy and prayers to you and your family in the loss of your mother. We had many, many chats while Capt. Will and daddy were residents of Corsica Hills. I can remember her many years ago when I was growing up and her family was her life. We hope God will send you much sunshine and peace in her loss. God Bless. “ Debbie and Michael- Please accept our heartfelt sympathy. We have wonderful memories of Ms. Shirley and admired her dedication to her family, her work, and her kindness to others. I am sorry we never got to take her for a limo ride with all the "stops" we had planned. I know she is at peace in heaven and she will watch over you.

Love-

Jane and Patty###imported-begin###Jane Anthony###imported-end###
