

Stacey Marie Hall

January 18, 1968 - March 18, 2018

Stacey Marie Stoughton Hall died on March 18, 2018, at The Adler Center in Aldie, VA, at the age of 50 after a courageous and valiant battle against metastatic breast cancer.

Stacey was born on January 18, 1968. Her parents, Donald M. Stoughton and Donna (Pulling) Stoughton, as well as a sister, Marsha Ballou Holst, predeceased her. Stacey is survived by her stepmother, Barbara Stoughton (Myrtle Beach, SC); a sister, Susan Ballou Wiles and her husband Ken (Lake Wales, FL); stepsister, Jennifer Delaney (Myrtle Beach, SC); stepbrother, Charles Delaney and his wife Rachel (Longs, SC); stepbrother, Wayne Stoughton and his wife Tracy (Westfield, NY); as well as several nieces and nephews. Stacey graduated in 1986 from Fayetteville-Manlius High School (NY), from Wheaton College (MA) in 1990, and she received a Master's Degree in Public Communications from American University in 1994.

Stacey was loyal to her upstate New York roots but found much happiness and professional fulfillment living in Virginia and the Washington, DC, area for most of her adult life.

In 1996, Stacey married Roland C. Hall in Chatham, MA. Although their marriage ended in divorce, their strong friendship endured. For the past several years, Stacey shared her life with Wayne Windsor of Sterling, VA.

Stacey had much affection for Wayne's daughter, Lauren Windsor.

Stacey will be remembered fondly by her family and many friends not only for her wit and keen intellect, but for her genuine enthusiasm for life, her sense of adventure, and for her indelible strength. She had an impressive knowledge and appreciation for fine food, wine, and cocktails, and she was always beautifully dressed and impeccably groomed. Stacey was cherished by her Wheaton College classmates. She was happiest near a beach, and she especially loved the cats in her life, Chester, Dodger, Mocha, Sebastian, Tori, and Eva. Stacey was loved deeply by many and she will be missed tremendously by all.

A memorial service to celebrate Stacey's life will be held on April 14, 2019, at 1 p.m. at the Community Church in Ashburn, VA. A second service will be held at a later date in Cole Memorial Chapel, Wheaton College, Norton, MA.

Interment of Stacey's ashes will be at the Virgil Rural Cemetery, Virgil, NY.

Stacey's friends and family would like to thank Capital Caring and The Adler Center for Hospice and Palliative Care for their extraordinary care and kindness during Stacey's last days. At Stacey's request, memorial contributions may be made to METAvivor or the Sjögren's Syndrome Foundation.

Tribute Wall

“ Stacey Marie Hall

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Stacey Marie Hall

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Stacey Marie Hall

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

JM

“ Stacey was a great high school friend. She was gentle and kind, very intelligent, and a gifted writer. Not deterred by my reluctance, she persuaded me to join the school newspaper, promising my assignments would be easy and that it would be fun to be in the same homeroom. She was good for her word, and mornings with Stacey were indeed a fun start to the day. (It goes without saying the paper was an outstanding production.) Years later I look back, baffled that I didn't do more to take advantage of Stacey's editorial leadership. Even then she was way ahead of her peers.

College and beyond put us on different life paths and we lost touch. But reunions and Facebook allowed us to reconnect. I regret we didn't get to meet in person again, but electronic communication let us exchange fond memories and renew our friendship. As she faced death with such dignity and grace, she again proved to be ahead of the rest. She made a difference and will be missed by many. I am sad we have lost her but grateful she considered me a friend.

Janet Stone McGuigan
Old Greenwich, CT

Janet Stone McGuigan - April 15, 2018 at 01:32 PM

SM

“ My deepest condolences to the family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Stacey again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"

Suzy M - March 29, 2018 at 10:53 PM