“ I was very sorry to learn of Stephanie's passing. I saw her frequently during the 1980's because she was good friends with Gilda Sadoff and I often encountered them together when stopping by to see Gilda. I remember her as a gracious, kind and caring person, a good friend to Gilda, and I want to extend my condolences to all the loved ones she has left behind...sadly way too early.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the FitzGerald family at this difficult time. I have had the pleasure of being Stephanie's hairstylist for many many years and I know how much she loved each and every one of you! Without a doubt she is in heaven celebrating with the Lord that she also loved so very much and is finally pain free. I am so thankful to have been part of her life and will cherish all the laughs and good memories. Rest easy my friend! ❤️

“ Stephanie and I were first cousins. When Stephanie, Kip and I would get together we would always get into trouble and laugh especially when PaPa and MaMa Conaway were around. I miss those days and am very sad that she had to depart. Bless her soul, she is no longer in pain.
