

Stephen De Cubellis

January 18, 2001

Beloved husband & pop pop Stephen "Murph" De Cubellis of Centreville died at the Memorial Hospital, Easton on Thursday, January 18, 2001. He was 83.

Born in Providence, Rhode Island on September 11, 1917, he was the son of the late Antonio and Andelina Perotti DeCubellis. He attended George West Junior High School and the Blessed Sacrament where he played baseball. In 1939 he was signed by the Boston Red Sox for their Farm League and assigned to Centreville, MD. and played in the Eastern Shore Baseball League. In 1941 he was sold to the Baltimore Orioles.

On October 11, 1942 he married the former Helen Benton. Mr. DeCubellis then served in the U.S. Marines during World War II. On the Island of Saipan he was wounded and received the Purple Heart. Returning home to play with the Baltimore Orioles but, was unable to fulfill his major league contract due to his war injuries.

Residing in Centreville he began working with the Centreville Town Utilities and later worked for the Centreville Postal Office and, retired after 30 years. He is a member of the Survivors Club 4th Division, U.S. Marines, The Methodist Men, The American Legion Jeff Davis Post in Centreville, The Centreville Town Council, was a volunteer for the Centreville Ambulance and ran the Centreville Little League.

In addition to his wife, Mr. DeCubellis is survived by a son, Stephen DeCubellis of Lakeland, FL; a daughter, Helen Derwin of Eldersburg, MD; two sisters, Mary Gormley and Margaret Kirkwood. 5 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

Memorial services will be held on Tuesday, January 23, 2001 at 12:00 at the Centreville United Methodist Church, Centreville. Memorial donations may be made to the Goodwill Fire Company, c/o Ambulance Fund 212 Broadway Centreville, MD. 21617

Tribute Wall

“ Stephen De Cubellis

---

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Stephen De Cubellis

---

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Stephen De Cubellis

---

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM