“ *Saddened to read of Stevie's passing. Fond memories of him in my youth as i raced around Rock Hall Harbor, and along the bay and into swan creek, in my old red canoe with a 6horse Johnson on it. Adding a little humor here; once Stevie and a lead officer (Merrill Stevens), as i was speeding through the harbor, i raced towards my grandfathers seafood marina (Cain's Seafood) in an attempt to hide. Upon arriving, Stevie and Merrill pulled up with flashing lights on the boat, as they pulled up beside me, The two officers threatened to give me a ticket for speeding in the harbor. I got mad and asked them how stupid they would look when it came out in the Kent County News Court House Calender, that they issued a ticket to kid, speeding through the harbor in a canoe. (not mentioning the motor, lol) My (stearn) grandfather raced out onto the deck, hollaring, Whats going on out here. I thought, Shewwwww, I've got my back up. When they explained what i had done. My Grandfather screamed out..... LOCK HIM UP!
Stevie and the other officer, pulled away and said, slow it down kid. Stevie with a twinkle of a smile, as he was known for.
Lois & Family. Stevie was a great guy, I'll miss him and maybe will meet him again some day. Condolences to you and yours. Arthur Godfrey, Edgewater, FL*
