

Steven Gutowski

September 4, 2002

GRASONVILLE, MD: Steven "Steve" Edward Gutowski of Grasonville, formerly of Queens Landing, Chester, died at Anne Arundel Medical Center in Annapolis on Wednesday, September 4, 2002. He was 50.

Born in New York on August 22, 1952, he was the son of Lorraine and the late Edward Gutowski. Mr. Gutowski attended a number of universities around the country including Penn State and Washington University. He was trained and certified as a medical transcriptionist and worked as an independent contractor for a number of medical transcription firms. He was enlisted in the U.S. Navy during Vietnam as an Air Intercept Controller on Naval aircraft carriers and was honorably discharged from the Navy in the 1970's. In June of 1997 he met Barbara M. Potter and they resided together in Queens Landing, Chester. He enjoyed the Chesapeake Bay, the waters of Seattle and caring for their pets.

In addition to his mother, Mr. Gutowski is survived by his partner, Barbara M. Potter of Grasonville; three children, Amy, Jennifer, and Tyler; three brothers, David, Richard and Tom; and his Shetland sheep dog "Pyper".

Services will be private.
