Beautifully done. I am a slobbering crying idiot right now after watching this but this was a great tribute to my cousin Steve. We were a cute bunch of kids all seven of us. Our poor parents. Lol.

“ Cousin Steve. Always very fond memories of our visits with you at the shore and our fun evenings at The Jetty and dinners at the Fishermans Inn. Glad we had that last pizza together in October 2019. When i light my candles i will think of you. I remember how we traded candle gifts. Nothing like a slow burning candle. May you be with family now. Youre at peace. Joan and Karl Karl John and Melissa Viksne.

Cousin Steve. Parting is such sweet sorrow. Thanks for all the great Eastern Shore Vacation memories. Thanks for taking my children out on the bay crabbing and the great visits to The Jetty. You were a great cousin and i will miss exchanging our Party Light Candles. Lol. My husband Karl will miss all your late fire side chats at the Shore and the pizza and beer. Sorry Kim for your loss and i appreciate all you have done to help my cousin Steve in his hours of need. It was very kind of you to stick in there when the going got tough. I appreciate greatly you were there for him. Sorry Uncle Tom and rest of Jewell family for your loss.
