

Stuart C. Levine

December 17, 1931 - September 7, 2016

Stuart C. Levine died on Wednesday, September 7, 2016, at Genesis HealthCare-The Pines. He was 84.

Stuart was born in Brooklyn, NY, on December 17, 1931. He was the son of the late Bertha Munzer Levine and Reuben Harold Levine.

Stuart enlisted in the Air Force on March 14, 1952, and served four years during the Korean Conflict. His primary career as an electrical engineer in Massachusetts spanned over three decades with such firms as GTE, Sylvania and Raytheon. He was also a newspaperman, writing for a paper in Whitinsville, MA.

He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Virginia Adair Levine. Stuart and Virginia retired to Las Cruces, NM, for 15 years before settling in Easton, MD, in 2007. There he enjoyed helping out for the family farm at the Easton Market Square. He was also a voracious reader and frequented Easton Library regularly.

In addition to his wife, Stuart is survived by two daughters, Susan Burke of Dallas, TX and Debra Levine of Heartland, TX; and two stepdaughters; Theodora Braver of Rehoboth Beach, DE, and Cleo Braver of Easton, MD; grandchildren, Donald, Daniel, Cari, Stephanie, Joshua, Kevin, Amber; and seven great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, Eastern Shore Chapter, 909 Progress Circle, Suite 400, Salisbury, MD 21804 (www.alz.org/maryland).
