

Susan Mules Booth

February 12, 1962 - January 17, 2026

Susan Mules Booth, 62, of Queenstown, MD passed away and into the arms of Jesus on January 17, 2026, with her husband and loved ones by her side.

She was born February 12, 1962, in Baltimore, MD to Vernon and Kathryn Mules who she loved dearly. She dedicated her life to helping others, graduating from Notre Dame of Maryland University, and pursuing a career as a nurse before switching paths to stay home and care for her children. Susan was an incredible mother to Lauren and Andrew – she was first and foremost their mom, but she was also “everyone’s mom.” She volunteered at each school that her children attended, which led to a new and very successful career in educational advancement and community engagement. She eventually became the Director of Advancement for St. Paul’s School for Girls and transitioned to Saint Ignatius Loyola Academy once her children had graduated in order to expand her impact on the community.

Susan met her husband Steve in 2005, and their love blossomed quickly and they were married on May 12, 2007. Where you found one, you would always find the other and they knew nothing but true and unfailing love in their 21 years together. He was the absolute love of her life. They retired together, moving to the Wye River to fulfill her lifelong dream, and spent much of their time together boating, traveling, attending Ravens games, gardening, doing puzzles and entertaining others with her fabulous cooking.

Susan became “Grammy” in 2012 and delighted in her four grandchildren. She and Steve frequently traveled to spend time with them, enjoying every second they could be together.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Vernon and Kathryn (Kathy) Mules and is survived by many loved ones including her dedicated husband Stephen Booth, her daughter Lauren Gilberti, her son Andrew Gilberti (Emily), her four grandchildren: Kathryn, Blaine, Cannon, and Jackson, and her sister, Leigh Thomas.

A memorial service will be held on Friday January 23, 2026, starting at 11am at Kent Island Methodist Church, 2739 Cox Neck Road, Chester, MD, 21619.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Susan’s honor can be made to Haven Ministries, <https://wl.donorperfect.net/weblink/weblink.aspx?name=E333275&iid=2>.

“ I just learned of Susan’s passing, and my heart is so heavy.

Our families met years ago in Ocean City, Maryland — her parents in 801 at The Irene, and ours in 1401. Our mothers became the closest of friends and truly adored each other. Every summer we spent day after day on the beach together. There was always a big group of us — parents and kids — laughing, talking, and just enjoying being together. Those were some of the happiest, most carefree times of my life.

Susan was a couple of years older than me and always seemed so much more responsible — like a big sister during those beach summers. She was thoughtful, steady, and so kind. She loved the beach — she always had the best tan, her hair would get lighter in the sun, and she had those skinny legs and the cutest little figure. She carried herself with such ease and confidence.

She was a wonderful daughter, and she loved her family deeply — her sister, her children, and later her grandchildren. We were blessed to watch her life unfold over the years.

She was at my wedding — I got married on the beach — cheering me on and helping with everything.

We lost touch when my mother sold her condo, but we finally reconnected a few years ago. We realized we were both spending time in Charleston and were trying to plan a day to see each other again — to sit on the beach like we used to.

It’s just another reminder that when you reconnect with someone you love and hold dear, don’t wait. Make it a priority. Go see them. I so wish I had given her one more big hug.

I’m so sorry she’s gone. And will one day see her again and sit on the beach with our families and Peace.

Sending my love to her family. May Susan rest in love and peace.

“ Dear Sweet Susan, you made the world a kinder, more gentle, and loving place. Always there to give a helping hand with a smile. My favorite memory of you will always be that incredible smile standing next to Steve on your wedding day in your wedding gown. Dear Steve, Lauren, Andrew, Leigh, and all that received her unconditional love throughout your life, i am deeply sorry for your loss. Wrapping you all in love. Barbara and Doren Jacobs
