“ Ms. Pritchard was first my Dad's teacher, then a whole bunch of my aunts and uncles, then my sister and I had her in the old 8-2 classroom. I had her for homeroom as well... The whole lot appreciated her hard work and dedication to SSPP and her students. She stayed long hours, as witnessed by anyone who was around. She helped other teachers, including my Mom. She made sure everyone was in line and making the grade. She didn't put up with BS but was willing to hear you out. She loved science and had a spirit like no other. Ms. Pritchard had a secure faith in God and her spirituality and I'm sure is singing somewhere we all have yet to know. My thoughts go out to her family and friends, her students, her peers and everyone in the community who was touched by her love and kindness. Rest in peace.##imported-begin##Alexis Morrell##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of Susan's passing. She and I were at Towson at the same time and actually lived right across the hall from her in Scarborough Hall. She was 2 years ahead of me and we both were working towards a BS in Education. When I was married in 1973, she poured our punch and your parents were also with us that day.

Susan was such a great girl and I send my sincere sympathy to all of you.

“ Susan was a life long friend. We graduated from Easton High in 1967, graduated from Chesapeake College and went on to be room mates at Towson State College now Towson University. I will always remember her for her smile, happy nature and love of teaching. She enjoyed teaching at SSPP. I am so sorry to read in the paper today of her passing. I recently drove past her home and thought I need to call her and take time to visit. God bless you- dear family.
