

Susan DiPietro Dunbar

November 26, 1952 - February 10, 2021

Susan Denese Dunbar, 68, of East New Market, MD, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones on February 10, 2021 after a difficult battle with COVID19.

Susan was born on November 26, 1952, to the late Victor and Linda Bennington DiPietro in Washington, DC. Susan was of Italian descent where family meant everything. The DiPietros eventually settled on Chesapeake Drive in Edgewater, MD. After graduating from Southern High School in 1970, she went on to become a knowledgeable and dedicated insurance agent. Susan remained in the insurance field for 45 years. She enjoyed her career so much that she continued to practice insurance in the comfort of her own home.

In September 1962, Susan met Victor Dunbar walking to school in Edgewater. It was love at first sight. They immediately hit it off and later married on May 8, 1971. Their 50th wedding anniversary would have been this year. They had their first child, Christie, on April 19, 1973, and their second child, Cassidie on February 5, 1977. Susan loved her two daughters dearly and lived her life for them.

Susan dedicated her life to being a supportive and caring wife, mother, sister, and grandmother. Her five grandchildren called her "Sue." Sue could light up the room at any moment. She loved spending time at the beach in her Ocean City Condo and traveling with her husband to places like Jamaica. Susan also enjoyed cooking, dancing, and making people laugh. She was passionate about spending time with family and friends. When she wasn't filling her home with warmth and kindness, Susan could be found playing with her two cats, Sonny and Cher.

Susan is survived by her husband, Victor Claude Dunbar of East New Market; her daughters, Christie Denese Dugan of Easton and Cassidie Marie Starner of Cambridge; her five grandchildren, Ryan Wade Shifler, Camryn Denese Dugan, Samuel (Sam) James Shifler, Christopher Joseph (C.J.) Dugan, and Stevie Marie Starner; her sisters, Sandra DiPietro, Vickie Fleischhauer, Lynna Baker, and Gina DiPietro.

A public visitation will be held on Saturday, February 27, 2021, from 1-3 p.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newman Funeral Home, 200 South Harrison Street, in Easton followed by a private memorial service at 3 p.m.

“ Hello Dunbar family - Although I'm two years late, I only recently found out Susan had passed away and it has broken my heart. I met her at my first administrative job as the receptionist at Jack Martin and Associates Insurance back in 1989. She was so very welcoming, kind and as time went on, we would laugh hysterically about pretty much everything. Her laugh would make me laugh. I recall you Cassidy and Christie, coming into the office after school was out and helping your mom. I could see how much love you had for each other. I am so happy to hear you are both grown women with children of your own. You had a fine example of what a mom should be and I'm certain all of her shines through you both as your raise your own children. Please know I'm thinking about all of you. God bless you, Mary-Margaret “ Sue is at the right hand of the father smiling and protecting the family that she loves so much. She didn't want to leave us, but God's plan is masterful. Trust in him always and the best tribute is to love your family the same as she loves you. Prayers of Grace and Strength to the entire family. Susan and I love you so much.

“ I'll always remember cruising in the Caddy side by side while Sue and Vic are in the Camaro looking like they are back in the 70's again. Her hair blowing in the wind elbow hanging out the window just having a good old time. Vic smashing the gas and hauling ass. Me and Cass always got a kick out of that. Our cruises will never be the same but we gonna keep riding for you Sue. Miss you and Love you so much.

I'm sad to see Christie, my daughter Sarah's best friend, lose her beautiful Mom. I'll always treasure that memory of pulling her car out of the deep mud at our farm on Sarah's birthday 🎂 during those teen years. Susan was patient and funny. So worried about Christie visiting our farm on that muddy night. I'm grateful Christie and Sarah will always be best friends.

It has been a hard two months for us all. But she will always be included when I think of Vic, Christy and Cassidy. Our bike 🏍️ ride to Colonial Beach. And Susan would always ask me if I had done the alligator 🐊 for anyone lately. So many good memories, We will miss you so much. All our love forever.
