“ I also received the word rather late of Suzi's passing. In my work as webmaster for the Friends of Blackwater, Suzi was always so generous with sending me photos and news about the ospreys and eagles around Blackwater and in her work with TriState. I knew that if I emailed Suzi with a question, she would be very quick in getting back to me. I enjoyed her love of wildlife and relied on it. I will greatly miss chatting with her and learning about her adventures releasing rehabilitated wildlife. Suzi was a wonderful person.

“ My condolences to the the Feldhuhn family, I sadly just received word of Suzi's passing earlier today at a meeting. My introduction to Suzi was through work a number of years ago. As a wildlife biologist Suzi was my first call whenever I needed assistance having a sick, injured, or orphaned bird that needed to get to Tri-State Bird Rescue and Research Inc. where she volunteered. Suzi's passion for helping wildlife was endless, we always had great talks whenever she either picked a bird up from me or dropped one off for relocation into a foster nest (mostly ospreys). She often rode out with us on our boat to say one final good bye to a young foster chick she delivered to us. I (we) will surely miss Suzi, I know she is in good hands now and is looking down on us, making sure her wildlife friends are well taken care of.

“ Bob - We're so sad to hear of Suzy's passing. Every time I look at the eagles, osprey, ducks, swans and all of the other wildlife here on Mt. Misery Rd., I'll think of Suzy and her passion and delight for all living things. She's a bright star that will be deeply missed.

*Warmly,
