“ Miss Sue was a very loving and nurturing women. My son Andrew spent 9 years of his life with her as his daycare "Mom". He loved her so much. When he was 16 years old and driving, he would still go to visit her. I am so grateful that she was there for us. May she rest in peace. I know she is in the arms of the angels and our lord Jesus Christ.

“ Mike and I are keeping the family in our prayers as you work through all that comes with the loss of a family loved one. We will miss her sweet smile as we shared warm handshakes on Sunday mornings. She was such a blessing and a joy to talk with. We are rejoicing in knowing that she has spent her first Easter in heaven singing and worshipping around the throne of God and resting in the arms of her Savior, Jesus. As you walk along this journey, know that the Lord has you wrapped in His arms of mercy and love. Martha and Leonard, thanks for sharing your Mom with us for a short time.

Sue my dearest friend, how the memories come flooding back. My heart is broken. I know you are with the love of your life Dave .Sadness surrounds us but you are now in heaven. The Bible taught us, remember, when we enter heaven we are younger and healthier. I know you are walking and dancing in his beautiful garden. You raised beautiful loving girls who will carry yours and Dave's memories forever. Rachel, Martha, Sarah, and family my thoughts and prayers are with you. God Bless Nancie LEWIS Hall

“ I am so very sorry to learn of the passing of this beloved lady. My relationship began with Miss Sue when she babysat my daughter at just 3 weeks old. She also 6 years later cared for my son. Miss Sue quickly became just like family to me as well as her daughters. I have so many wonderful memories of her and I chatting at the end of the day. I remember her love of Christmas and most especially her Santa Claus's. She made the most adorable dresses with hats for my daughter in which I still have to this day. She was one of the most kind, loving, genuine and caring person that I was fortunate to know. You will be truly missed, Miss Sue. Love you always ❤️
